

REQUIREMENTS

for scientific articles published in the journal
“Proceedings of Gorsky State Agrarian University”

1. Submitted for publication article should reflect brief information of the original theoretical or experimental research.

2. The authors are to be persons who are directly engaged in the research and do the submitted work. They are personally responsible for the reliability of materials (data for 2-3 years, accordance with statistical criteria, etc.), correct sources citation and reference to them.

3. Each article review is performed in two stages. At the first stage, the article is checked in compliance with double-blind peer-review and in the Antiplagiat system. The level of an article originality is to be not less than 70%. Records of the defended theses are allowed, but the level of the article originality as a whole is also to be not less than 70%. If the author of the article is the scientific supervisor of a postgraduate student (applicant), the data of the dissertation work that he uses in the article should be accompanied by a reference to the materials of a postgraduate student's (applicant) articles. The level of the article originality should also not be less than 70%.

If the article meets the formal requirements and has the required percentage of originality, it, together with the review report in the Antiplagiat system is delivered to the specialist in the field – a member of the Editorial board for reviewing. If the review is positive, the article is allowed for publishing.

4. Surname of one author in each issue should not be found more than 2 times.

5. On the first page of the article are indicated in bold: in the left corner - UDC, on the second line – authors' full name (no more than 5); on every other line centrally – the article title (capital letters).

Abstract in compliance with DB Agris (200–250 words) is given in the Russian language on every other line after the article title.

Further key words are typed single-spaced in Russian using italic, bold (no less than 5). The main text of the article is given on every other line after the key words.

6. The article should convey: introduction that reveals the topicality of the considered issue or problem; objects and methods of research; theoretical and experimental parts; results and their discussion (preferably with quantitative data); conclusion or findings (clearly-worded); list of bibliography.

The reference to literary sources is marked with an ordinal number in square brackets, e.g., [1,..., 4], by the order of reference in the text.

Conclusions are on every other line after the main text. In a line from the conclusions is the list of bibliography formatted according to GOST P 7.05 – 2008 requirements. The volume of the article should be up to 8 computer pages except for speculative or survey articles.

In a single-spaced interval after the list of bibliography abstract in English is given, and then – keywords in English.

Information about the authors (including work place and contact data) is placed at the very end of the article (font size 12) in a single-spaced interval after keywords in English.

7. Submitted to the editorial board article should have top and bottom margins – 20 mm, left – 30 mm, right – 15 mm, Font – Times New Roman, font size - 14, line spacing – sesquilinear. A paragraph is automatic.

Do not type in the formula editor lower and upper case and foreign letters that are in the text, but only formulas.

Justify the text in tables. The number and the title of tables are placed above the table in one line.

Articles should be mailed to the journal's address by authors in person or the organization.

8. All articles delivered by authors are published at no charge.

9. Articles submitted to the Editorial board will not be returned to the authors.

The editorial board reserves the right to reproduce the submitted materials (publication, reproduction) without limitation of copies.